

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS Augusta Zeeb has demonstrated a zest for living matched by few in this world; and,

WHEREAS, Augusta is a distinguished South Dakotan whose impressive group of descendants includes five children, twelve grandchildren, twenty-four great-grandchildren, and four great-great-grandchildren; and,

WHEREAS, Augusta enjoys the cards and letters she receives from friends and family members and looks forward to the company of the many well-wishers who come to visit; and,

WHEREAS, Augusta is a true South Dakota pioneer whose life for over a century has been a symbol of the determination of the frontier spirit; and,

WHEREAS, Not only is Augusta known and loved by countless friends and family members, but she's also a woman whose life is a valuable part of the heritage of our great state; and,

WHEREAS, Today we join Augusta Zeeb in celebrating the anniversary of her birth, that miraculous event which took place 105 years ago today:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 15, 1982, as in South Dakota, and join my fellow citizens in wishing this fine woman a very Happy Birthday.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fourth Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Two

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

ALICE KUNDERT, SECRETARY OF STATE
